Berlin, London, Madrid, Rome – July 2026. Nearly two years ago, Europe's four leading costume houses Angels Costumes (London), Sastrería Cornejo (Madrid), Theaterkunst (Berlin), and Tirelli Trappetti Costumi dal 1964 S.p.a. (Rome) joined forces to create what is now the well-established Costume House Alliance. This unique partnership and comprehensive network of costume resources is used by national and international costume designers to find the perfect look for films and television series across borders.

Today, the partnership has become a key player in international film and television production. More than 50 productions have already made use of the Europe-wide network to gain access to a unique inventory of costumes, expertise, and services, including productions such as "Amadeus" (Costume Designer: Lisa Duncan), "Nuremberg" (Costume Designer: Bartholomew Cariss), "Chopin, Chopin" (Costume Designer: Justyna Stolarz, Magdalena Biedrzycka) and "Black Gold" (Costume Designer: Mirjam Muschel)

The Alliance enables costume designers to access the collections of all four houses seamlessly across national borders. At the same time, productions benefit from dedicated points of contact, streamlined decision-making processes, and a comprehensive range of services – from custom-made costumes and fittings to sourcing, logistics, and shipping.

About Costume House Alliance
